RUTH

When Naomi's husband and sons died she wanted to return to her home in Bethlehem. She told her daughter-in-law, Ruth, to return to her own family. But Ruth loved Naomi and insisted on going with her so she could take care of her. In Bethlehem Ruth worked in the fields to gather grain for them to eat. She was a hard worker and her faith and loyalty were rewarded. A wealthy landowner married her and took care of Ruth and Naomi. Ruth's son was the grandfather of King David. Today Ruth is still remembered for her faithfulness.
