Passion

Week

When it came time for the Passover Feast, Jerusalem was buzzing with talk about Jesus.

"He fed five thousand people with a little boy's lunch."

"He makes the deaf hear and the blind see. He even heals people with leprosy!"

"He raised Lazarus from the dead!"

The people longed for Jesus to be their King. When he came riding into Jerusalem on a donkey, they lined the streets and cheered.

"Hosanna!" they cried. "You are blessed—you come in the name of the Lord."

PUZZLE ANSWERS

Jesus prayed long into the night. He didn't want to die, but he told God, "I'll do what you want me to do."

A gang of soldiers carrying torches invaded the quiet garden. They arrested Jesus and took him to trial. Even though he'd never done anything wrong, the leaders decided Jesus would have to die.

It was up to the Romans to put Jesus to death. The Roman governor wasn't happy about the decision, but he let the religious leaders take Jesus away.

Soldiers beat Jesus, spit on him, and called him names. Then they gave him a heavy cross to carry through the streets to a hill outside the city.

There they nailed him to the cross. The sky turned dark and the earth shook. Jesus died at three in the afternoon, the same time the priests made the daily sacrifice.

No sacrifice would ever be needed again. Jesus' death paid for the sins of the whole world.
