

*Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
Matthew 8, 28-34*

Matthew 4—Satan Tempts Jesus Temptation Storybook

Supplies

copies of the Temptation Storybook scenes for each child construction paper (1 sheet per child, any color) crayons or markers scissors glue stapler

Directions

Color and cut out each of the six scenes. Cut a piece of construction paper in half widthwise. Fold the two pieces of construction paper in half to make a book (see the example). Staple the book at the center. Glue each scene to a page in the order they are numbered, starting on the inside of the front cover. Write "Satan Tempts Jesus" on the front cover and decorate the cover as you wish. Use the book to retell the story of Satan tempting Jesus. Describe what is shown in each picture and then look up the correlating Bible verse to tell how Jesus answered each temptation using words from Scripture.

- 1) Jesus was hungry after 40 days in the desert. Satan tried to convince Jesus to turn stones into bread.
- 2) Look up the verse to find out what Jesus said.
- 3) Satan tried to convince Jesus to jump off a very high place on top of the temple. He told Jesus that God would not let Him get hurt.
- 4) Look up the verse to find out what Jesus said.
- 5) Satan offered to give Jesus many things if Jesus would bow down and worship him.
- 6) Look up the verse to find out what Jesus said.

Matthew 4:7

4

Matthew 4:10

6