

AMAZING STRENGTH

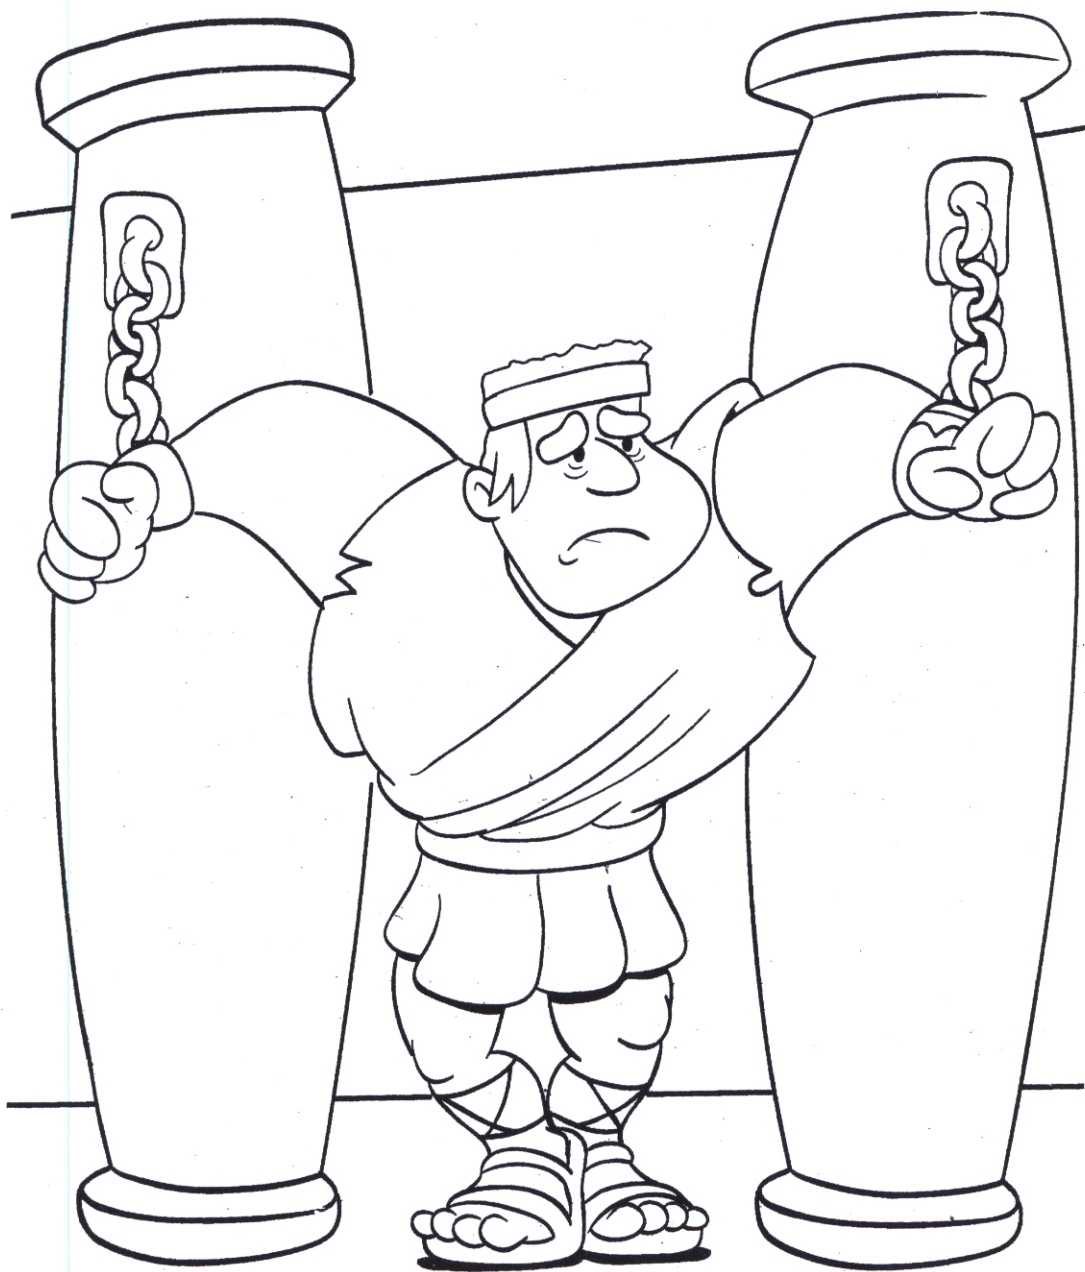

God chose a man named Samson to fight
another battle for Him.

What Could It Be?

One time Samson even wrestled a wild animal.
Connect the dots to find out which powerful animal Samson fought.

Samson's enemies tied him to two pillars.
Now who would fight for God's people?

When Samson obeyed God, he became very, very strong.
He could lift logs as big as trees and rip strong ropes into little pieces of string.

But when Samson didn't obey God, he became so weak that his enemies were able to capture him.

Creating Words

Find the word that fills the blank by writing the first letter of each picture below.

○ _____

○ _____

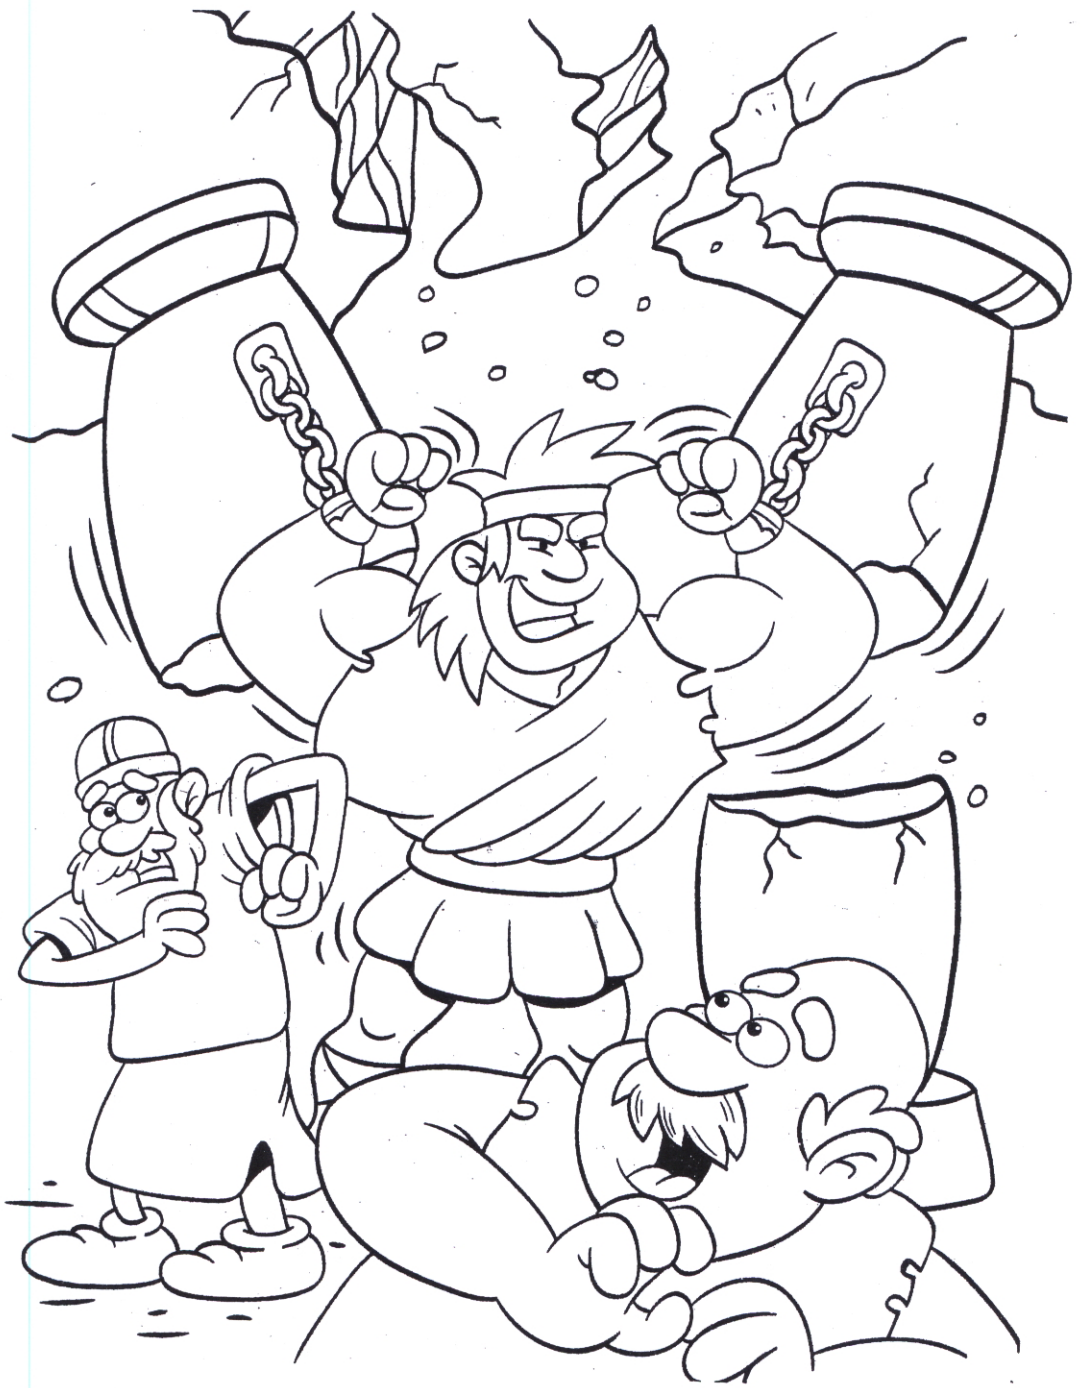

○ _____

○ _____

Samson didn't know what else to do, so he began to _____.

God gave him strength to pull down the two columns and the roof tumbled down to trap his enemies.